

Educational Excursion 2024 Nehru College Pailapool Cachar Assam

Report on Educational excursion to Ayodhya and Varanasi (2nd May 2024 – 9th May 2024)

Nehru College, Pailapool organized an educational excursion to Ayodhya and Varanasi, involving 20 students and faculty members Dr. Rajendra Prasad Goala (HOD, Department of Hindi), Dr. Priyanka Biswas (Department of Education) and Mr. Deb Prakash Purkayastha (Travel Consultant). The journey began from Badarpur station on May 2, 2024, with the North East Express departing at 2:00pm. They reached Guwahati at 2:30 AM on May 3, 2024, and boarded their next train from Kamakhya station at 10:00 PM, arriving in Prayagraj at 2:30 AM on May 5, 2024.

Upon arrival in Prayagraj, they checked into a hotel, had breakfast, and rested. The team departed for Ayodhya at around 9:00 AM, arriving at 3:00 PM after a lunch stop. On May 6, 2024, they visited Ram Mandir and Hanuman Garhi. There was massive crowd in the location. So students were asked to stay together in groups. The team entered Ram Mandir after going through lots of security checks, submitting mobile phones, shoes and electronic gadgets, only thing which was permitted was our identity card and purses or wallets. It was a worthwhile experience. After lunch at a roadside restaurant and a journey of almost 6 hours from Ayodhya the team arrived Varanasi at 6:00 PM. There, they visited Shri Kashi Vishwanath Temple and attended the Sandhya Aarti. Both students and teachers gained valuable insights and knowledge from this experience.

On May 7, 2024, they checked out of their hotel at 8:00 AM and began their return journey from D.D. Upadhyaya to Kamakhya by Brahmaputra Mail, departing at 11:11 AM. The group reached Guwahati at 3:00 PM on May 8, 2024, settled into a hotel, and had lunch. The final leg of their journey from Guwahati to Silchar started at 6:00 AM on May 9, 2024, arriving in Silchar at 9:00 PM. The total excursion ran smoothly and everyone reached their home safely and merely.
